

Ways to Say Thank You!

Remember: Tag us on Instagram @nu.studentjobs

- 1 Decorate the workspace for the week with a banner or balloons.
- 2 Write personal thank-you notes or give certificates of appreciation to student employees.
*Thank-you card templates will be available on our website a week prior to National Student Employment Week.
- 3 Provide sweet treats throughout the week, such as jellybeans, chocolate eggs, cookies etc.
- 4 Host an office party with interactive games. You can have an award ceremony where every student is winning something.
- 5 Take pictures with your students and post them in your department or on social media.
Add #NUStudentEmploymentWeek in your captions.
- 6 Purchase gifts or coupons from the University Bookstore or local merchants and give them to student employees as prizes.
- 7 Have a potluck, pizza party, or an ice cream sundae bar during the week.
- 8 Send virtual e-card to your students.
- 9 Submit a nomination for the Student of the Year and/or Supervisor of the Year through the following links:
Student of the Year Nomination:
<https://forms.office.com/r/p3sBbsXmCH>
Supervisor of the Year Nomination:
<https://forms.office.com/r/ruwmnRV5Bu>
- 10 Join the Virtual Celebration on 4/14 Friday @1:30 PM EST - 2 PM EST hosted by the Office of Student Employment and Graduate Assistantships & Fellowships. We will announce the winners at the celebration!